The Language of EFT Crossword #3

Created by Robin Williams Blake
Certified EFT Therapist and Supervisor

Across
1. "Many of the most intense of all human _______ arise during the formation, the maintenance, the disruption and the renewal of affectional bonds." - Bowlby 1979
2. According to research, what percentage of couples show significant improvement after EFT
3. What the 'R' in RISSSC stands for.
4. A critical event when one partner feels deeply hurt by the other and decides not to trust again. (two words)
5. Stage two in EFT: Changing ________ Postions.
7. At the end of step ______, couples see their cycle, realize they have co-created it and stand together to stop it. (core emotional experience)
8. Withdrawers often feel ________, when in negative cycle of interaction with their partners. (core emotional experience)
10. In Stage One, a therapist starts by tracking and ________ the couple's present interactions and response patterns.
11. Conversation #2 in Hold Me Tight
12. Level two training in EFT (three words)
13. In steps 5 and 6, the EFT therapist helps partners to deepen, distill and ______ (the three Ds), to increase awareness of, engagement with, and ownership of attachment vulnerabilities, hurts and fears.
14. EFT intervention where a therapist makes inferences that promote a more intense emotional experience in a partner. (two words)
16. Term for a pursuer who becomes exhausted, frustrated and shut down. (two words)

Down
2. According to research, what percentage of couples show significant improvement after EFT
3. What the 'R' in RISSSC stands for.
4. A critical event when one partner feels deeply hurt by the other and decides not to trust again. (two words)
5. Stage two in EFT: Changing ________ Postions.
7. At the end of step ______, couples see their cycle, realize they have co-created it and stand together to stop it. (core emotional experience)
8. Withdrawers often feel ________, when in negative cycle of interaction with their partners. (core emotional experience)
10. In Stage One, a therapist starts by tracking and ________ the couple's present interactions and response patterns.
Down
11. Pursuers often feel __________, when in negative cycle of interaction with their partners. (core emotional experience)